SPRINTERS IN MARATHON RACE

Thirty-Five Runners in Contest.

Fleetest of Foot Among the World's Athletes Compete for Prize.

Race Represented Interesting and Historic Event in the History of Greece.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 30.—The Marathon race, the principal event of the revival of the Olympic games, was run today, and thirty-five runners, comprising the fleetest of foot among the world's athletes, competed for the prize, a $250 cup presented by President D. R. Francis of the exposition, and a gold medal. The race represented an interesting and historic event in the history of Greece, commemorating the great run made by a soldier of Athens from the battlefield of Marathon to the city of Athens.

Third Time Race Was Run.
Today's event marked the third time the Marathon race has been held as an athletic event in the revival of the Olympic games. It was won at Athens in 1896 by Louis, a Greek, in two hours and fifty-five minutes. The second race, held in Paris in 1900, was won by Peste of France, in two hours and fifty-five minutes. The distance of the race was forty kilometers, or twenty-four and eighty-five-hundredths miles.

Greeks and Kaffirs Enter.
Among the list of entries, besides W. R. Garcia of San Francisco and several from other parts of the United States, were several Greeks and three from South Africa, two of them Kaffirs.

Prior to the time set for the race each contestant was physically examined by a medical committee. The physicians also examined each runner after the contest had ended. The runners were divided into two groups, the Greeks and the Kaffirs. The Greeks ran the race in two groups, the first group of ten runners and the second group of five runners. The Kaffirs ran the race in one group of five runners.

Off in a Bunch.
The start was made at 3:30 p. m. The men were off in a bunch, and spurred on by the cheers of the crowd, ran the five prescribed laps on the stadium track at a fast clip. When they left the stadium for the long heart-breaking endurance test of twenty-three odd miles of the circuitous roads that could be found in this vicinity, the contestants were strung out over about a quarter of a mile.

First Through the Gates.
The first man through the gates leading out of the exposition grounds was Fred Long of New York. He was followed by M. Spring, also of New York City. The first man to reach Clayton, three miles from the stadium, at 3:28 p. m., was M. Spring of New York. The last man, Yamasaki, Kaffir mail carrier, reached Clayton at 3:42.

Hicks is the First American to Win this Event.
The first Olympic Marathon race was won by Hicks of Athens, Greece, in 1896, and won by Taylor of France in 1900 and fifty-five minutes. The winner of today's race received a cup presented by President Francis of the exposition, an Olympic championship gold medal, the second silver medal and the third a medal of bronze.

She has shattered the doors of her apartments by tapping them lightly with her fists, only only a seeress could tell what would happen if she hit hard. When Mrs. McCarthy was before Recorder Lavery, charged by her landlord, James Sedler, with having attacked him. Two dozen neighbors were present to testify that Mrs. McCarthy had exercised violence. Mr. Sedler's story was indeed a sad one. He went to serve a dispossession notice upon Rose McCarthy, of whom the neighbors had heard much. When he announced the reason for his call Mrs. McCarthy seized him, threw him in a wild circle through the air, and then slapping him across her lap like a damp towel, spanked him soundly. Mr. Sedler left without serving the dispossession notice. The grand jury, on a charge of assault and battery, in her cell, she said: "I broke a couple of doors because the landlord slammed them in my face. I am sensitive, and resent such things as that. I wouldn't harm a fly."

Dear Sir: Jan. 11, 1904.
"Ever since I was in the army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything, and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.
"I continued its use, and am thankful to say that I am entirely free from all kidney trouble, telling all about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today, and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.
"I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable, and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers, I am,
"Very truly yours,

Field Day Sport at Fort Douglas

Exercises Will Include a Foot-Race
by Companies as a Whole.

Since the arrival of the troops at Fort Douglas from the National Guard encampment, the regular routine of military duties has begun. The soldiers from the post speak very highly of the treatment accorded them by the officers and men of the National Guard, especially of Lieutenant-Col. Greenwald and staff.
Today all the troops at the post will take part in the military field day exercises to be held on the lower parade, beginning at 1 o'clock, under the supervision of the athletic officer, Robert O. Douglas. The exercises will include a foot-race to be run by the companies as a whole. The Twenty-ninth Infantry band will furnish the music for the occasion. A large crowd is expected from the city.

Col. Ballance to Retire.
Lieut.-Col. John C. Ballance of the Twenty-ninth Infantry has recently been ordered to appear before the board appointed for the purpose to be placed upon the retired list. Col. Ballance never joined the regular army, having been having been on detached service in the War department at Washington. He recently returned to his station, having been on sick leave for six months, and it is thought his retirement is ordered on account of his ill-health. Col. Ballance has served more than twenty-five years in the service of his country, and his record is an excellent one.

Old Age Reunion of Triplets Is Held

Three Men Travel Thousands of Miles to Celebrate Fifty-Seventh Birthday.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Aug. 30.—The famous Aldrich triplets, the oldest in the country, celebrated here the fifty-seventh anniversary of their birth. In order to be with their mother, who is 93 years old, the three men traveled thousands of miles. Ambrose and Alfred came from their homes in Stockton, Cal., while Albert came from Minneapolis. The fourth surviving child of a family of eight, Mrs. Frank Holliman of Charles City, Minn., also was present.

Celebrated by Big Dinner.
The celebration took the form of a big dinner, hundreds of invitations having been sent out. The Methodist clergyman of Stamford, Vt., presided. Mrs. Aldrich being the oldest member of the Methodist church in this vicinity. She has lived in the little village of Charles City since she was a child, and on the farm where the celebration took place today the triplets were born.

When the triplets broke out Ambrose, being then 17 years of age, he was a member of the Sixty-first Massachusetts regiment. The other two boys were anxious to go to the front, but the father refused his consent.

Spent Day With Mother.
Ambrose and Alfred went to Stockton in 1872, and did not see Albert again for thirty years. They held a reunion at Monterey three years ago, and then planned on coming East to see the mother this year. It was the first time all the members of the family had gathered together in thirty-five years. The father, who was 85 years of age, died six years ago.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

The Vice-President Independent Order of Good Templars.
An experience which many women have had with Miss Agnes Stebbins, of 23 East 14th Street, New York City, as follows: "I had very poor health for a year until life became a burden. I was thin, pale, and had headaches, backache, and dizziness. I was broken and tired. I looked for health. Tried several medicines but none were of any lasting benefit until I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I soon realized that I had found the right remedy. It helped me to throw off the poisons that saturated my system, removed all pains and strengthened the digestive organs, making me feel like a new woman. I have been able to do my health back to me. This medicine if taken occasionally keeps the system in perfect condition, helping it to throw off the poisons and consequences of exposure to dampness. I am pleased to give it my endorsement."
"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
